

Our EXCURSION to the Space Theatre on Tuesday 10 April (Week 11 Term 1)

What a great Excursion! The performance was very entertaining. Each and every one of us were enthralled throughout. We laughed, we danced, we watched in awe. Our group's behaviour throughout the whole day was exemplary. The bus ride was exciting. It was a really fun excursion for everyone. During the show Grug explored the colours of the rainbow. He found a blue bower/nest of a bower bird. He rode a yellow bike—too fast down hill - this got the biggest laugh. He wore a red and white beanie in the snow whilst camping in a red tent. The drum he beat while we all did a special dance was the colour indigo. He painted his house green after walking past a building with a bell and play equipment—they never told us what that building was!? He used the Violet brush to finish making a rainbow in his house to match the one he saw in the sky after the storm. Grug took us on lots of great adventures. We even got to meet Cara and Grug on stage after the show.
