

Outcome 2: Children are Connected with and Contribute to Their World

Children respond to diversity with respect

This is evident, for example, when children:

- begin to show concern for others
- explore the diversity of culture, heritage, background and tradition and that diversity presents opportunities for choices and new understandings
- become aware of connections, similarities and differences between people
- listen to others' ideas and respect different ways of being and doing
- practise inclusive ways of achieving coexistence
- notice and react in positive ways to similarities and differences among people

Ilkoo and Amy brought in his Hanbok 한복, the traditional Korean attire for a boy.

Thank You Ilkoo for sharing some traditions of the Korean New Year celebrations with our group.

Ilkoo and his Mum, Amy showed the group how to bow like a boy with respect to their elders.

We were fascinated to learn everyone in Korea is aged one when they are born then celebrate being another year older on Lunar New Year.

Ilkoo was excited to receive a traditional gift of money in a White Envelope from his parents to wish him prosperity and good fortune.

Ilkoo and his Mum then showed us the two ways a girl might bow to her elders.
