

The children are encouraged to take on Challenges.
Skipping is challenging

Gross motor skills help strengthen muscles for fine motor skills (like writing)

We are making 'paint' with charcoal and bricks.

Where's Wally?

This activity involves 'noticing' and persistence. The children also used Team Work to solve this puzzle.

a cabin in the woods

Goldilocks and the Three Bears.

Literacy: recall, order, vocabulary, language, role play

We are making masks, costumes and props for the Stirling Pageant on Sunday 12 Nov

Music

Since the jobs that our preschoolers will do probably don't exist yet, our priority is to teach them the skills to adapt and inquire and question and cooperate... life skills.

So much more useful than rigid concepts such as the alphabet.

Caroline Bellouse

Executive Functions needed to be employed to control ourselves and only "dig" with a brush to find the precious bones or use one finger to "write" in the grains.

